

Designing a Website Using Dreamweaver

Dreamweaver is the professional visual design solution for building websites and Internet applications. It's powerful features allow you to automate production and enhance team efficiency. Dreamweaver facilitates workflow through integration with other web applications.

In this course, candidates will be taught in using Dreamweaver to create, build and manage professional websites and Internet Applications.

Pre-requisite: Knowledge in Windows

Target Audience:

This course is targeted at people who have a great interest in designing and deploying web sites. Web Designers who need to learn and use Dreamweaver for Internet Application Development are also welcome.

They work as:

- Professional photographers
- Graphic and Web design professionals
- Educators
- Technical image editors (for example: architecture firms, medical organizations, law enforcement agencies)

In:

- Web and graphic design departments and studios
- Prepress service bureaus and commercial printers
- Ad agencies
- Magazines and newspapers (photo journalism)
- Video production departments and studios
- Commercial and portrait photo studios
- The Academe

General Outline:

- Setting Up a Local Site
- Paragraphs and Layout
- Frames
- Working with Images, Links, URL's and Tables
- Filling Out Forms
- Styling With Style Sheets
- Layers and Positioning
- Behavior Modification
- Drawing Timelines
- Frames
- Plugins and Active Content
- Managing Your Web Sites

No. of Hours: 15 Hours