

Using AutoCAD – Module 1 (Basic)

This course is intended for architects, engineers and other individuals who would like to have a first hand experience on creating two-dimensional objects using the AutoCAD technology.

Pre-requisites: Knowledge in Windows and technical drawing concepts

Target Audience:

This course is targeted at people who have interest in using AutoCAD for technical drawings.

They work as:

- Draftsmen
- Engineers
- Architects

In:

- Architectural Firms
- Engineering Companies
- Construction Companies
- Packaging/Production Designers

General Outline:

- Getting started with AutoCAD
- Understanding Basic Concepts
- Application of Layers
- Utilizing Display Commands
- Entity Draw Commands
- Editing Tools
- Enhancing Drawing - Hatch & Text
- Dimensioning
- Blocks
- Printing and Housekeeping

No. of Hours: 30 Hours